About the Course: 2026 CPT Training Requirements

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code 109.803, the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission (OPOTC) is required to set a minimum number of hours for continued professional training (CPT) if there is supporting funding. The Ohio General Assembly has once again provided funding for CPT hours in 2026. The OPOTC Commission has identified eight (8) hours of mandatory training; the remaining 16 hours consists of optional training topics that will need to be pre-approved by OPOTA. In 2026, NCPI will be officering the following CPT training:

Day One – 8 Hours – Four (4) hours on Legal Aspects of Confessions and then Four (4) hours on Civil Liability related to motor vehicles, illegal arrest/search and failure to train.

Day Two – 8 Hours – Two (2) hours on Evidence Handling and Property; Two (2) hours on Mental Health Awareness Issues; One (1) hour on Officer Safety – Distractions that affect Safety; One (1) hour on Public Video and Audio recording of Cops; and Two (2) hours on Impacts of Women in Policing on Female Offenders/Victims

Day Three – 8 Hours – (Mandatory day); OPOTA is requiring eight (8) hours on the following 5 topics:

2 hours	Legal Updates
1 hour	Missing Persons (part of the 3 hour legal update requirement)
2 hours	Communications
2 hours	Compliance and Control Tactics
1 hour	Firearms

Instructors for this training will come from the following NCPI training staff:

William D. Healy: retired OSHP Staff Lieutenant; Director of North Coast Polytechnic Inst.

Susan M. Rance-Locke: retired OSHP Staff Lieutenant; OSHP Academy Instructor

Sarah S. Shendy: Lieutenant, Case Western Reserve University Police Department

William P McGee: retired Sergeant-Solon PD; Investigator – Cleveland Dept. of Public Safety

Jim Cook; retired Chief of Police, Highland Heights Police Department

Jeremy Jesenovec: retired Lieutenant Maple Heights Police Department; Chief of Police

About the Instructors

William D. Healy was a career law enforcement officer who had been a member of the law enforcement community for over 29 years. For over 24 years, Mr. Healy had been a member of the Ohio State Highway Patrol and was the coordinator of the Highway Patrol's Traffic Drug Interdiction Team (TDIT). He also served as a Lieutenant and Highway Patrol training coordinator at the Ohio State Highway Patrol Training Academy for over five years. Mr. Healy has a Bachelor's degree from Ohio University and a Master's degree from Central Michigan University. Mr. Healy is a graduate of the Southern Police Institute's Administrative Officers Course at the University of Louisville. Mr. Healy is a former adjunct professor of constitutional law at Ohio University. He has been certified as a Police Instructor through OPOTA for over 36 years and has trained tens of thousands of law enforcement officers in a variety of disciplines. He is the Director of the North Coast Polytechnic Institute.

Mr. Healy or another member of his staff will teach all of the 1st Day training topics in the 2026 CPT program.
