About the Course: 2026 CPT Training Requirements

Pursuant to Ohio Revised Code 109.803, the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission (OPOTC) is required to set a minimum number of hours for continued professional training (CPT) if there is supporting funding. The Ohio General Assembly has once again provided funding for CPT hours in 2026. The OPOTC Commission has identified eight (8) hours of mandatory training; the remaining 16 hours consists of optional training topics that will need to be pre-approved by OPOTA. In 2026, NCPI will be offering the following CPT training through the Seven Hills Police Department:

Day One – 8 Hours on Search and Seizure/Search Warrants – with emphasis on why cops stop people, length of investigative detentions, stop & frisk, search incident to arrest, motor vehicle probable cause, plain view, plain feel, inventory, consent, abandoned property, and search warrants.

(NOTE: Seven Hills modified the day 1 training program for their schools.)

Day Three – 8 Hours – (Mandatory day); OPOTA is requiring eight (8) hours on the following 5 topics:

2 hours	Legal Updates
1 hour	Missing Persons (part of the 3 hour legal update)
2 hours	Communications
2 hours	Compliance and Control Tactics
1 hour	Firearms

Instructors for this training will come from the following NCPI training staff:

William D. Healy: retired OSHP Staff Lieutenant; Director of North Coast Polytechnic Inst.

Susan M. Rance-Locke: retired OSHP Staff Lieutenant; OSHP Academy Instructor

Sarah S. Shendy: Lieutenant, Case Western Reserve University Police Department

William P McGee: retired Sergeant-Solon PD; Sheriff's Deputy-Cuyahoga County SO

Jim Cook; retired Chief of Police, Highland Heights Police Department

Jeremy Jesenovec: retired Lieutenant Maple Heights Police Department; Chief of Police

Jon C. Roethlisberger; retired Sergeant at the Perry Township Police Department
