

About the course:

“Corrections In-Service”

The Ohio Minimum Jail Standards require that staff assigned to the jail duties in 12 day or 12 hour facilities receive training within the first year of assignment. A minimum of sixteen hours of training is mandated to include topics of security concepts, suicide prevention, first aid, CPR, and unarmed self defense. This one (1) day seminar, when combined with departmental unarmed self defense and CPR/First Aid Certification, fulfills the requirements of the Administrative Code and is approved by the Bureau of Adult Detention.

About the Topics

- Legal Aspects of Corrections
 - Security Concepts
 - Handling Emergencies
- Interpersonal Communications
- Minimum Standards for Jails in Ohio

About the instructor:

Sgt. William McGee

Sergeant McGee is a twenty-three year veteran of law enforcement who has served with the Solon Police Department in Solon, Ohio. Sergeant McGee has served in a variety of assignments throughout his career and presently serves as the Jail Administrator of Solon Police Department's Full Service correctional facility.
