

About the course:

“How to Conduct Frisks for Dispatchers”

“Most dispatchers have never been taught...”

This five hour seminar is designed to provide information to dispatchers on how to conduct searches and frisks of women suspects. Sometimes, female dispatchers are placed in situations where they are required to search or frisk another female who is impending incarceration for weapons or evidence. Most dispatchers have never been taught on how to conduct safe and thorough searches and frisks. This seminar will include practical exercises on how to conduct safe and thorough searches and frisks.

ABOUT THE TOPICS:

5-hour seminar

- Legal aspects of conducting searches & frisks
 - Safety issues and concerns
- Step by step practical instruction on how to conduct thorough searches & frisks
